GedDev, LLC

An online giving page

A donate button that works, in an account you own, with monthly giving and receipts handled for you.

You get

- A free giving platform (Zeffy, Givebutter or similar) set up in your own account
- One donation page with your logo and wording
- A monthly-giving option
- A donate button for your website
- An automatic thank-you email and a year-end receipt
- A test gift, so you see it work

You do

- Connect your own bank account
- Pay the platform or card fees, if the platform charges any
- Keep the keys: the account is yours

Online giving page	Price

Next step

Reply to any email from Seth with your logo and the two or three sentences you want donors to read. The page follows.

Donor data stays in your own account; GedDev never holds it. One-time fees are invoiced when the work is done, due in 15 days. GedDev also writes and administers grants: geddevllc.com/grants.
